

National Library Lovers Month

Across

4. _____'s parents committed him to an asylum because they didn't want him to be a writer.
6. Ernest Hemingway was a professional ____; he also pioneered his own signature brand of rum.
7. The Adventures of Tom Sawyer author ____ nearly drowned 9 times as a child, before learning how to swim.
8. Bram Stoker claimed his literary pal, _____, was the inspiration for his undead villain, 'Count Dracula.'
10. The Great Expectations author loved his pet _____, Grip, so much that when it died, he had it stuffed and mounted in his study.
11. The largest book ever published – “_____” – is almost 7 feet high and 10 feet wide.
13. Victor Hugo wrote the longest sentence ever printed in the novel _____.
14. The first book to sell over 1 million copies was _____
16. _____ wrote her book How the World Began when she was 4 years and 3 months old.
17. Harper Lee was an American novelist to the best-known novel _____.
18. the word for loving the smell of old books
19. _____ is one of the largest books on Earth. The book measures 1.75 meters tall, and 1.90 meters wide when it is open.
20. Charles Dickens also gave himself a number of unusual nicknames, including 'The Sparkler of Albion,' 'The Inimitable,' 'Revolver' and '_____.'
23. _____ Novel only sold 25,000 copies during Fitzgerald's lifetime.
24. The titular raven in Edgar Allan Poe's Gothic classic was initially supposed to be... a _____.
25. The Adventures of Tom Sawyer is one of the first novels to be written on a _____.

Down

1. In the Harvard Library, there are three books suspected to be bound in _____
2. _____'s dog ate the original manuscript for Of Mice and Men.
3. Did Not Actually Write The Nancy Drew Books, this was a pseudonym for several ghost writers.
5. J.D. Salinger, most famous for _____, apparently drank his own urine and spoke in tongues, according to a memoir written by his daughter.
9. During his lifetime, _____ wrote around 37 plays for the theatre and over 150 poems!
12. _____ invented the printing press
15. Remembrance of Things Past by _____ was the longest novel written. It has an estimated 1,267,069 words.
21. is a Japanese word that means “to let reading materials pile up in one's home and never read them”
22. _____ is the city with the biggest number of libraries per capita – with a whopping 11.5 libraries per 100,000 citizens.

